Specific information about the housing agency, waiting list and deadline to respond are not included in this translation. Please refer to the notice you received for this information.

Attention Applicant:

The [NAME OF HOUSING AGENCY] is requesting an update to your application on the [NAME OF WAITING LIST]. To remain on the waiting list, you must update your application or certify that your information is still correct.

THE DEADLINE TO UPDATE YOUR APPLICATION IS:

[DEADLINE DATE]

Per [NAME OF HOUSING AGENCY] policy, it is your responsibility to inform the [NAME OF HOUSING AGENCY] of any changes in contact information, income, household composition or any other information on your application. Failure to provide information or respond to update requests will result in your application being removed from the waiting list without further notice. If you would like to be removed from this waiting list, you may do so online or simply do not respond to this update request and your application will be automatically withdrawn.

Please note: This is NOT an offer for housing or assistance. This notice is only a request to update your application on the waiting list and to remove those who are no longer interested. [NAME OF HOUSING AGENCY] has partnered with AffordableHousing.com in updating this waiting list. Applicants can utilize the online portal to update their application and check their status.
